

NOTIFICATION

It has been decided by the College of Physicians & Surgeons Pakistan that first Fellowship programme will also be available in the subjects of Medical Oncology & Cardiac Surgery with effect from July 2009 session as per details given below:

MEDICAL ONCOLOGY

- Entry : Passed FCPS-I in Medicine & Allied or obtained exemption
- Training : i. Two years RTMC registered training in Medicine
ii. Three years RTMC registered training in Medical Oncology

After completion of two years training in Medicine and other requirements, passing of Intermediate Module examination in Medicine will be one of the mandatory requirements for appearing in FCPS-II examination in Medical Oncology.

CARDIAC SURGERY

- Entry : Passed FCPS-I in Surgery & Allied or obtained exemption
- Training : i. Two years RTMC registered training in Surgery
ii. Three years RTMC registered training in Cardiac Surgery

After completion of two years training in Surgery and other requirements, passing of Intermediate Module examination in Surgery will be one of the mandatory requirements for appearing in FCPS-II examination in Cardiac Surgery.

The other usual requirements of workshops, Dissertation/Publications, log book, etc. will be applicable to candidates of these two first Fellowships also.

The candidates who are already undergoing training in these two specialities under the second Fellowship programme will continue such training according to the laid down requirements of their programme.

Dr. Muhammad Sharif
Acting Chief Controller of Examinations